

Guiding Principles, Vision and Mission

Office of Aboriginal Education and Engagement

June 14, 2019

Teaching:

We will hold space for our collective histories by sharing our authentic selves, and respecting all our relations.

Knowing:

We will practice self-reflection to honour and nurture our inner knowing to guide us responsibly.

Land:

We acknowledge and give gratitude to the land and water as Medicine that teaches us we are all connected.

Sharing:

We will trust the energy of Thuy that as we engage our hearts, minds and spirits.

Humour:

We will encourage a source of humour, resiliency and strength.

Vision

Co-creating and nurturing relationships to achieve equity for Indigenous learners.

Mission

We will develop, lead, and share promising practices related to:

- Decolonizing educational systems
- Honouring Indigeneity
- Celebrating our shared journeys/ pathways
